The pastor said that there were more hyprocites outside of the church than there were inside and also passed out some advice to employers. He said:

"There are nine hypoerites outside of the church to every one inside. "Lots of persons think that just because a man is in the church, he is a hyprocrite. A hypocrite is one who is not what he pretends to be, and that applies to everyone, whether he is in the church or not.

"The world is always passing judgment upon us. The question for each of us to consider is what kind of an estimate the world makes of us.

"What is your estimate of yourself? Your own should be a humble estimate no matter how elevated your station in life may be. There is no man living who can give at the same time the impression that he is clever, and that Christ has power to save sinners.

"Then, too, we must consider God's estimate of us, for notwithstanding the world's judgment of us, and our own judgment of ourselves, it is His estimate that really counts. God knows it, and will value us as such."

END CONFERENCE

The annual Bible conference of the Plymouth Brethren which has been in session for four days at the Woodmen hall, Twenty-first avenue west and First street, came to a close last evening. The sessions have been attended by about fifty delegates from various parts of the state.

The Plymouth Brethren are a unique sect. All members of their church are on an equality, no "pillars of the church," such as pastors or elders being tolerated. The meetings were conducted without a chairman, the discussions being entirely of an informal nature.

"To grow strong in soul we need soul food. That soul food is love and geodness in activity. If God be love, then the way to Him is the way of love. And it is the way all may walk. It would be sad indeed if faith would depend upon the acquisition of some abstract philosophy. For then only the fewest could find their way to God. But the way of love we all know, we all may walk. This love means the turning away from mere self-gratification and turning with open arms to our fellows. It means more. It means acting and being, and not merely think-ing lovely things and dreaming goodness. That is what Jesus means, when he says: "The pure in heart shall see God." ture.
One of the features of the meetings was an attack on the organized church which members of the sect termed as being too political and too prone to lean towards the worldly affairs to be Christianlike.

Dramatic Sketches.

God.

"Faith in God is a progressive experience, it increases in proportion as we empty ourselves of egoism and fill ourselves of egoism and fill ourselves with altruism. The 'pure in heart' are not the men who are free from intellectual errors, the scholars and thinkers, but simply the men and women who have cleaned themselves, purified themselves of their selfish desires. These desires have a legitimate place in life; it is unnatural to deny them entirely as does the ascetic and who by his frantic efforts only proves how dear they are to him. The unselfish man is simply the man whose ground the little love of self. Now when the higher life fills us we rise unconsciously up toward the highest.

"That does of course not mean that those who cannot see God, must need

"Satana" and "April, Fools" were the titles of two interesting dramatic sketches presented last evening by the Young Men's Dramatic Club of St. Peter's Italian Catholic church. The entertainment was given in the Italian hall, "Manzoni," Eleventh avenue west and Superior street. The production was attended by a large crowd.

Quarterly Conference.

The third quarterly conference of the Swedish Methodist congregation will be held this evening in the parlors of the church, Twentieth avenue west and Third street. Rev. John A. Anderson of Menominee, former pastor of the church, who is now superintendent of the Lake Superior district, is in the city and will preside at the meeting.

"Collectors of course not mean that those who cannot see God, must need be depraved. Sometimes a man who even has risen to noble heights may not see the divine spirit simply because he is too intent examining the garment of divinity; his desire of and for outward truth, shuts out and veils for him the spirit within. Indeed the man of science is apt to become so nearsighted that he sees but a little patch of nature even. Near to God such a one will deny Him. Yes if he see not the Father, the Father sees him and His love for him is no less than for him who discerns His face. But be that as it may, the clearer sight is for him, who can get rid of weight of self, who can rise upward. If then he opens his eyes, he will see God in His glory."

When asked what the Duluth police will do in cases where women wear the undergarments, Chief Troyer stated this morning that there is no law here forbodding it. However, if these skirts create a disturbance or prove to be a nuisance, the wearers will be arrested on such charges. "The law will be enforced," bravely spoke the chief this morning, "but hat is as far as the police can go. Several women have been on the streets essed in these new skirts, but most them also wear undergarments, so here is no ground for complaint. Those wearing very long splits in their skirts and who are not properly covered by undergarments may get into trouble if they are followed by a crowd."

Judge Windom refused to say what entence he would pass on a woman arrested for wearing a spilt skirt that aused a disturbance or created a riot. He wanted to look into the matter fur-

A dispatch received from Louisville Saturday stated that Chief of Police Lindsey had issued a blanket order for the arrest of wearers of split skirts

"A number of women have been appearing upon the streets of Louisville in dresses which the laws of decency forbid, and I believe this is without a doubt a disorderly act," said the chief's order. "I refer to skirts which are split up the side, exposing the limb. As long as an undergarment is worn beneath the slit dresses, it is all right, but where a liagrant exposure is made, it is the duty of the police to make Chief Lindsey said that women who have the "nerve" to appear on the streets in slit dresses will not mind "a little thing like a police court trial."

fog which covered the entire length of Lake Superior, causing grounding of vessels and general delays, yesterday was one of the biggest days of the season in the movement of boats in Duluth harbor. Between midnight Saturday and 12 o'clock last night, thirty-five boats arrived here while twenty-eight passed out through the canal piers. Of the arrivals, twenty five were loaded with coal, making a mammoth day in coal receipts. Most of these boats made fine time in unloading and ships that came light were getting off with ore cargoes today.

The fog which settled over the Soo in midweek and then enveloped all of Lake Superior was the worst in years as far as extent was concerned. As Capt. Secor of the Renssalaer aptly expressed it: "I've been sailing the lakes now fifteen years and this was the first time while traversing the full length of Superior that 1 had to blike the length of the ship to see her aft."

While several groundings were reported at the Soo it is known many other ships struck bottom but were

"FROM THE MANGER TO THE CROSS"

The great possibilities of the motion picture are exemplified in no better way than by the five-part photoplay which opened at the Lyceum yesterday, "From the Manger to the Cross."

The story of Christ's Life and passion is told in pictures, taken as near as possible to the locations indicated by the Bible. The pictures are clear, the story is held to the Biblical narrative and the people who saw the photoplay yesterday were deeply impressed.

progress and I was getting into my clothes as fast as I could when, behold! a bellhop appeared at the door with a bundle of the sweetest scented fool letters you ever 'listened to.'

"My wife dived for the medicine chest we carry, grabbed a bottle and then threw herself down on the bed to drain the contents. Fortunately she got only alcohol. Dr. Spruce soon brought her around. Now she's sorry."

About a year ago Mrs. Ward, who previous to her marriage was Maude Mauger, sued the aviator for divorce, carging bigamy. She had been aroused by the claims of Margaret Warner Ward. Ward repudiated the marriage to this woman, but gave her safe to this woman, but gave her $250 for the support of her child and the security as a fast as I could when, behold! Immediately afterwards, it will be shipped to Chicago for the start of the reliability cruise. On the cruise it will be piloted by Hugh Robinson of international hydroaeroplane fame, with "Bill" Jones

The boat which has been used in flights on the bay for the last week by Tony Jannus is also entered in the cruise. He will leave for Chicago with the boat tonight and will prepare it for entrance. During the two weeks while Mr. Jones is on the cruise with his Lark of Duluth, the flying machine part of the Lark o' the Lake entertainment will be given by William H. The machine holds all world's records for distance cruising with and without passengers, having covered 1,973 miles without a passenger and 1,202 miles with a passenger. The presence of the second type of ship will turnish a pleasant diversity to the the Lake entertainments. Mr Bleakley is a capable and daring operator and he will show some new features in hydroaeroplane flights. "Bill" Jones' new flying boat, Lark

City Will Improve St. Croix Avenue If Money Is Advanced.

Property Owners Given Chance to Show If They Are in Earnest.

The owners of property on St. Croix avenue will be given an opportunity to show how much in earnest they are in the matter of having their street improved this year.

Commissioner Murchison, head of the division of public works, states that a number of them have asserted that the property owners will be willing to pay for the work in advance. If they put the money in the hands of the city treasurer the work will be done this year; if they do not, the improvement will have to wait its turn, which will entail delay until next summer at the On the representations of the property owners the commissioner has had Engineer Wilson prepare estimates of the cost of the job, which includes St. Croix avenue from the railroad tracks to Buchanan street and Sutphin street from St. Croix avenue to Lake avenue from St. Croix avenue to Lake avenue. The estimate for sandstone is $48,000; for creosote blocks, $45,000, and for brick $40,000, all to be laid on a concrete base. Before the payement is laid the necessary sewers will be put in.

'Considerable heavy traffic passes over St. Croix avenue, Lake avenue and Sutphin street. The section is being devoted to wholesale purposes and the travel is continually increasing. The city would be glad to go ahead with the work, but cannot because the money is not in the permanent im-money is not in the permanent improvement revolving fund. But if the property owners are sufficiently desirous of having the work done, they be accommodated if they advance the cash.

To prevent delay Commissioner Murchison will have the council order the work done at the meeting of the commission this afternoon. Detailed plans and specifications can then be prepared and bids received. The work can then proceed without loss of time can then proceed without loss of time if the cash is in the hands of the city.

STOCK QUOTATIONS AND PROS-PERITY.

Philadelphia Public Ledger: It is now exactly six months since the national election. During that period there has been a steady con-tracting in the value of virtually all securities. On the day before President Wilson was elected the average price of the twenty leading statistical railroad stocks stood close to 124. Yesterday these same stocks were below 105. During the same time the great industrial stock fell from above 90 to below 77.

When a relative shrinkage is multiplied by all other stocks and there is added a serious decline in nearly every class of bonds, it will be found that there has been a disappearance in the market values these securities greatly exceeding a billion dollars.

Here is something which may well cause sober reflection on the part of all legislators the country over. If a lack of full confidence can accomplish so much harm, is it not time to do something that will restore belief in this country's productive greatness?

It is, sir; it is.

It will be strongly urged that the Olympic committee adopt a standard set of track and field events at recognized distances and weights to hold for all time and that this program be separate and ditinct from such usual Olympic side ights as skating, yachting, polo, teinis and other modern features of sporting competitions.

The American delegates consisting of Gustavus Kerby, Col. Robert M. Thompson, James E. Sullivan, Barton S. Weeks and Joseph B.
